About me

Alexandra Petzelbauer joined VHM as an associate in April 2025 and supports Nikolaus Vavrovsky's team in the area of dispute resolution.

Prior to joining VHM, Alexandra gained relevant experience as an associate in a renowned Austrian law firm, where she advised clients on civil and civil procedural law as well as related cross-sectional matters of corporate and commercial law. Alexandra has already gained international experience and worked on United Nations projects in Mexico City, completed negotiation courses at Berkley College in New York City and studied at the University of Aberdeen.

During her studies at the Vienna University of Economics and Business, she was honored for her academic success and worked as a legal assistant and intern in various law firms.
