About me

Anna Müller has been working as an associate at VHM since September 2026. She is part of the arbitration team led by Nikolaus Vavrovsky and Florian Stefan and, prior to becoming an associate, gained relevant experience as a paralegal at various law firms in Vienna.

Anna completed her law degree (Mag. iur.) at the University of Vienna and is currently pursuing a PhD. She also holds an LL.M. from the Catolica Global School of Law in Lisbon. Anna has attended numerous practice-oriented conferences and has already completed her court internship.

In addition to German, she is also fluent in English.
