About me

Sabrina Kramberger has been working as associate at VHM since April 2026, supporting the team led by Theresa Nindl in the field of dispute resolution. Her practice focuses on all aspects of employment and civil law.

Sabrina has already been part of VHM during her studies, working as a legal trainee, and has been a valued member of the firm for several years. Prior to joining VHM, she gained experience during an internship in the legal department of a renowned banking group and completed her court practice within the jurisdiction of the Higher Regional Court of Vienna.

Sabrina Kramberger graduated in law from the University of Vienna and is fluent in German and English.
